

The book cover features a series of vertical stripes in a vibrant green and a light cream color. The stripes are of varying widths and are arranged in a repeating pattern. Two dark navy blue horizontal bands are positioned across the cover, one above the other, containing white text.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of Jarratt High School, county of Sussex, State of Virginia, being of sound mind and humorous state do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

To Edna Myrick we leave a parsonage equipped with a parson.

To Alice Williams we leave "Puggy's" ability to flirt and her address book.

To Ruth Marks Temple we leave a mint green "Thunderbird".

To Clytis Matthews we leave one of those hardy "Woodruff" boys.

To Mary Fuller we leave a jewelry store to display her collection of diamonds.

To Billy Mitchell we leave some of our ability to make noise and to be heard.

To Jimmie Woodruff we leave permission to drive the '57 "Chevy" more often.

To Ben Owen we leave a year's subscription to his favorite comic book "A Date With Judy".

To Roberta Ricketts we leave a steamship ticket to her special "Wharf".

To Wayne Poarch we leave all of Elvis's talent to go along with his sideburns.

To Joan McKenzie we leave a pair of blue "Genes".

To Robert Johnson we leave "Sanky's" membership cards to the Hunt Club.

To Billy Willis we leave a date manual.

To Mrs. Saunders we leave a basketball team as winning as her magic personality.

To Mrs. Brown we leave a windmill that works and a piece of apple pie to remind her of the glorious moments we shared together at the Junior-Senior Prom of 1957.

To Mrs. Burruss we leave a little "Chipper".

To Mr. Mayes we leave a bottle of black hair dye for all the gray hairs we have given him in the last four years.

To Mr. Owen we leave three Senior girls, in place of Florence, Barbara, and Puggy, who will try to think of more excuses to get out of class.

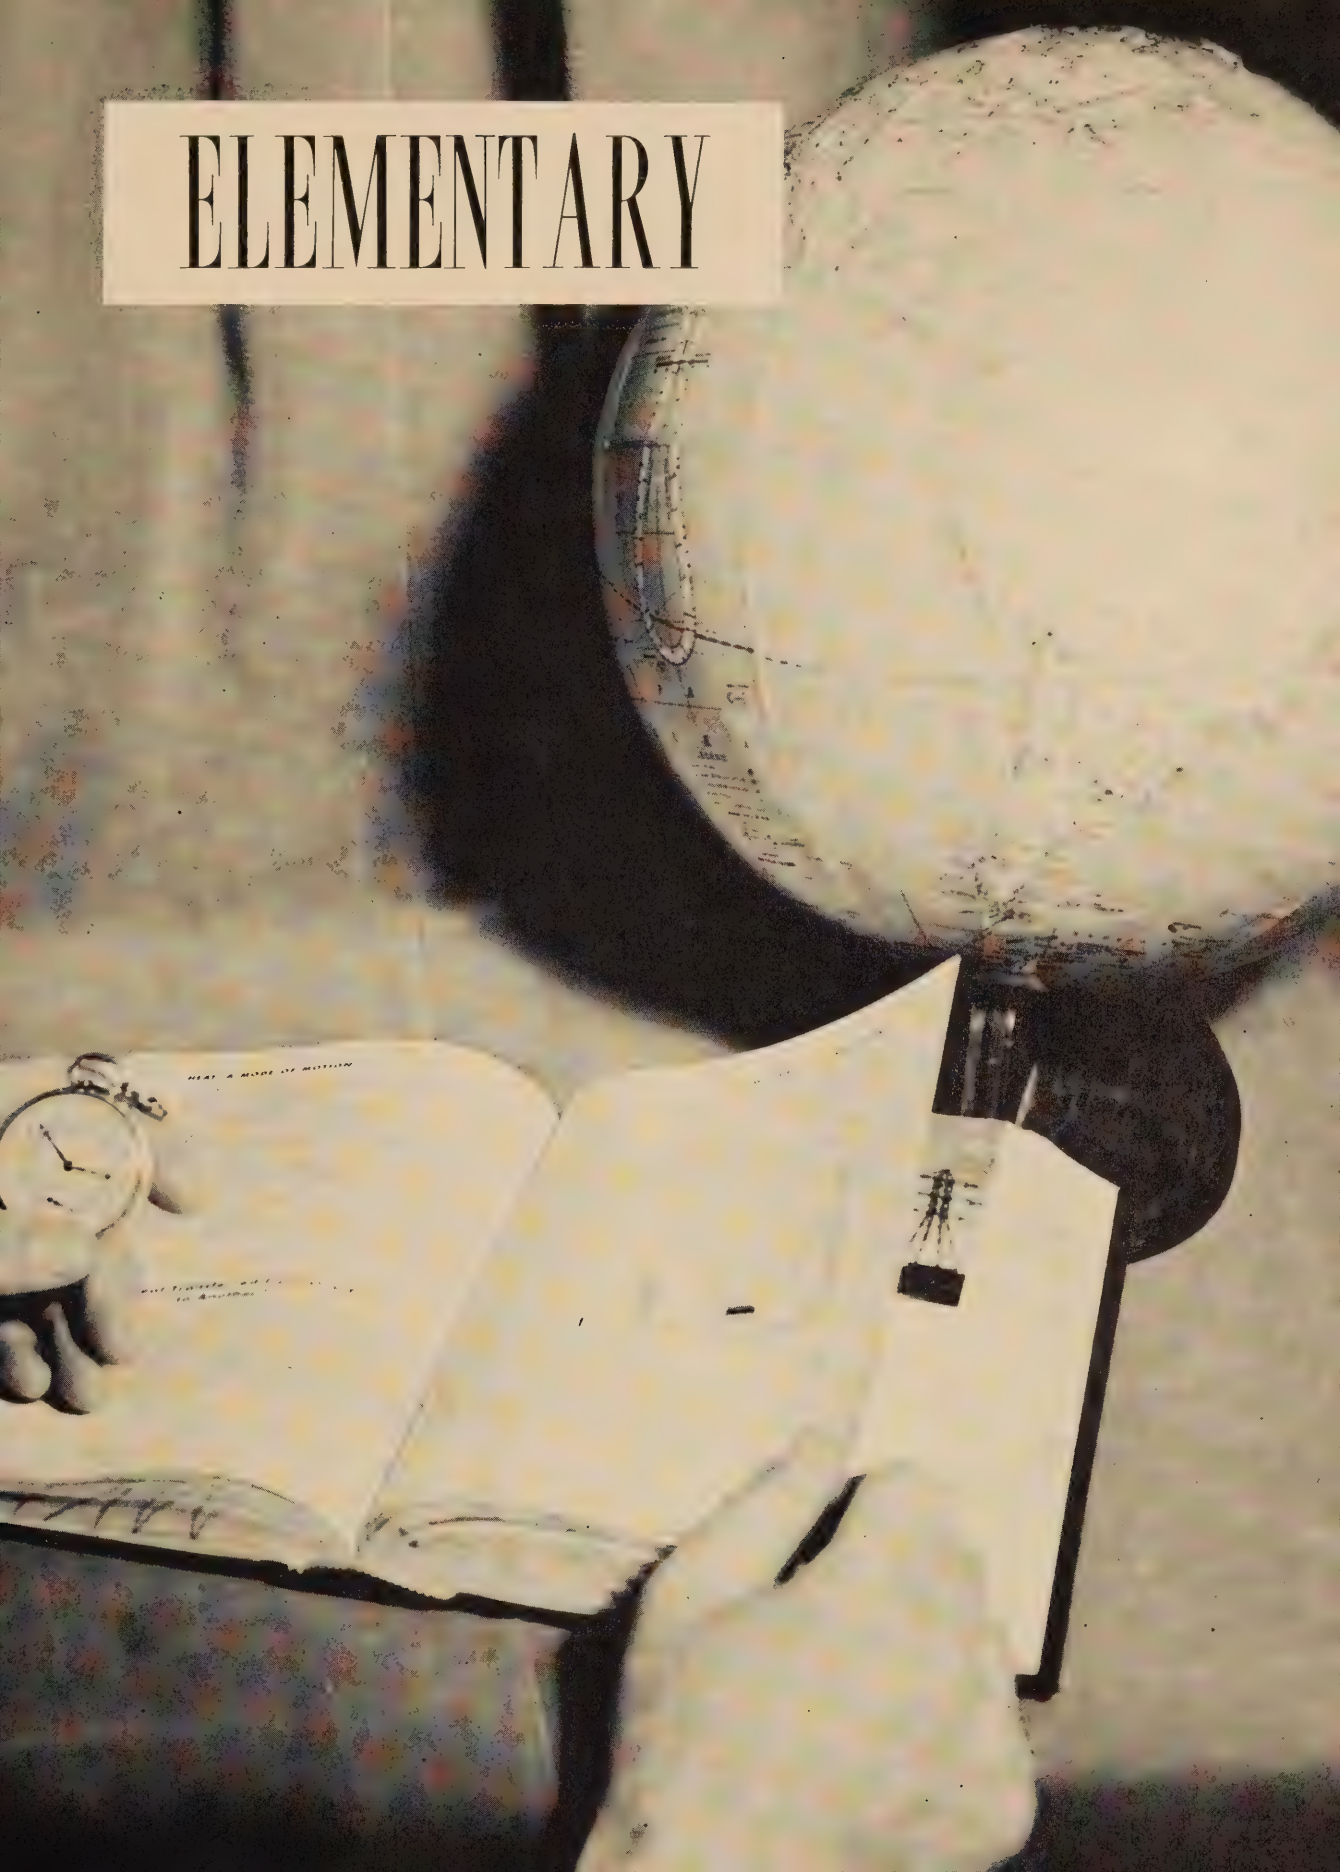

To Harvey Joyner we leave a new automatic oil furnace.

To Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Bach we leave this refrain: "May the next seventeen years be as 'Souper' as the last twelve."

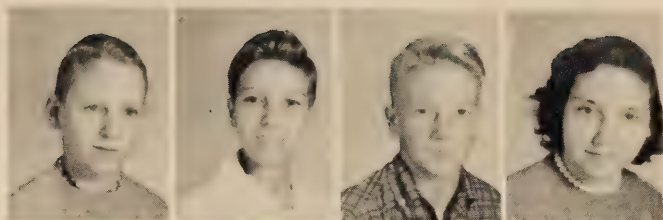

To all the teachers of "dear ole Jarratt High School" we leave anything they want because they deserve it after putting up with us for twelve years.

To our "Alma Mater" we leave peace and quiet for the first time in four years.

CLASS PROPHECY

Prom night! The most exciting night of the year. The clubhouse had been transformed into a beautiful garden and at one end was the Fountain of Love. As I tossed my coins into the fountain I wished that I might see ten years into the future lives of the Seniors of '58. As the ripples began to calm I seemed to see a vision. Why it's Melissa Harrell! She has graduated from Longwood and is now president of V. P. I.

Oops! There goes Melissa. Someone has thrown another coin into the water. But look! It's Buzzy Woodruff in front of "dear ole J.H.S. making the boys run around the court for exercise. He has taken Mr. Mayes' place as basketball coach.

As the ripples continue to reveal the future, I could see Barbara Zimmerman clicking away on a typewriter. Yes, that's she all right. She is working for the "Franklin Insurance Company", as a stenographer.

The next scene was that of William Rodgester waiting on customers at "Morgan's Super Market"; he is now the head meat cutter.

All of a sudden, in the far side of the fountain, I could see Horace Hall. He is now manager of the "Mary Jane Bakeries".

As the visions continued to appear to me there suddenly came a wisp of smoke and George Emmett Smith appeared sitting behind his desk looking over the papers while smoking the cigarette that he manufactures, "Phillip Morris" of course.

Just then Carol tossed a coin in the fountain and my mirage of the future was blurred for the moment. As it began to clear I could see Eddie Myrick, manager of the "Owen Farms".

Why there is a little country church surrounded by cool green woods. There in the door stands S. L. Joyner, now pastor.

Here comes another set of ripples. This first little one looks like, why it is, Florence Smith! She is being promoted to Superintendent of Nurses in the new hospital in Jarratt.

In the next ripple I could see an article. It said, "Edward Harrell has now been appointed the youngest Chief Justice of the Supreme Court."

Finally the last ripple came by and in it I could see Angela Bickel driving around in one of those German sports cars, not sightseeing, but as our good will ambassador to Germany.

Just then the orchestra began to play "Three Coins in the Fountain", and as I waltzed across the floor I was still a little dazed from the visions of the Seniors of '58.
